Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 10 of the application claims "Computer program product comprising program code which is stored on a machine-readable medium...". However, page 6, lines 17-20 of the specification recited "The present invention relates to a method, geodetic devices, a geodetic system and a computer program product, a computer data signal and a reference or a data directory". Also, on page 25, lines 29-32 of the specification recited "The method according to the invention relates to all computer-aided realizations, regardless of the specific embodiment of the program sequence in circuit form, firmware or recordable software". Appropriate corrections are required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as not falling within one of the four statutory categories of invention. Supreme Court precedent¹ and recent Federal Circuit decisions² indicate that a statutory "process" under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to another statutory category (such as a particular apparatus), or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing. While the instant claim recites "Computer program product comprising program code which is stored on a machine-readable medium, for carrying out the step of receiving data and processing utilizable data of the method according to claim 1, in particular if the program is executed in a computer.", the claim neither transforms underlying subject matter nor is positively tied to another statutory category that accomplishes the claimed is being tangible, and therefore does not qualify as a statutory process. For example on page 6 lines 17-20 of a specification recited as used in this application, the terms "a computer data signal" and on page 25 lines 29-32 of a specification recited "firmware or recordable software", question about §101. Software, signal or program is not one of the four categories of invention and therefore claim 10 are rejected as non-statutory.

Reasons for Allowance

3. Claims 11, 13 and 20 canceled.
4. Claims 1-9, 12, 14-19 and 21 are allowed over the prior art record.
5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The applicant's remarks, filed on 06/10/2009, have been carefully reviewed with updated search. Consequently, reasons for allowance of claims 1-9, 12, 14-19 and 21 are set forth in according to the applicant's remarks, state on page 8.
